

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Gail Jacobson, who is retiring from the state of South Dakota Department of Environment and Natural Resources after serving over 26 years of service; and,

Whereas, Gail began her employment with the state working as a library associate with the state Library for nine years, later moving on to a secretary position for the Electrical Commission with the Department of Labor, a position she held for seven years;

Whereas, In February 2007, Gail accepted a secretary position for the Water Rights program where she has provided a wide variety of clerical and office support functions including responding to requests and questions from the public regarding routine program operations, all of which kept the Water Rights program running smoothly on a day-to-day basis; and,

Whereas, On June 8, 2017, Gail is retiring to enjoy a long and well-earned retirement, and she will be missed by her friends and colleagues; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.
